BISHOP SHEEN TO OPEN EXTENDED CHAPEL SERIES

Bishop Fulton J. Sheen of Rochester, New York will be the preacher for the first extended chapel service on Wednesday, October 2, at 10:00 a.m. From 1950 to 1966 the director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, Bishop Sheen gained national fame through television appearances and newapaper columns. He was named to the Rochester bishopric in 1966.

CZECH TEAM TO PRESENT TWO PROGRAMS ON CAMPUS

Four Czechoslovakians, two of them professors of Marxism and two Christian churchmen, will make Princeton Seminary the first stop on a U.S. tour on Wednesday, Oct. 8. At 1:30 p.m., on that day the team will hold a discussion of the current Czech situation in the Campus Center Lounge. Following a dinner meeting with Koinonia on Wednesday evening the team will conduct a panel on Christian-Marxist dialogue in East Europe. The Panel, to begin at 8:00 p.m., will be held in the Main Lounge.

JOHN FRY, CHICAGO PASTOR, TO SPEAK ON VIOLENT PROTEST

"Violence as a Mode of Protest" is the title of a lecture to be given by the Reverend John Fry, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Chicago, at a 7:15 p.m. meeting at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Sunday, September 28. Fry, recently quizzed by a Senate committee, has served as an advisor to the Blackstone Rangers of Chicago's Woodlawn area. Seminary students are invited to attend the lecture, which is sponsored by the United Christian Ministries at Princeton University.

PICTURES --- HANDBOOK --- PICTURES

Photographs for the Handbook must be taken by Monday, September 29. Every student must have a picture taken to complete the registration process. The late registration fee of $5.00 will be charged each person who does not have the picture taken at Clearose Studio, 148 Nassau Street in Princeton. Old pictures, snapshots, application photos, clippings, etc., are not usable. Please be prompt so that printing schedules may be met.

VIEWPOINT

VIEWPOINT is a student publication which takes its title seriously. Its purpose is to serve as an avenue for campus opinion, as well as a stimulator of that opinion. Entries may range from opinion and dissent to poetry and meditation. The editorial board of VIEWPOINT is presently being formed. Any student interested in working on the VIEWPOINT Editorial Staff is invited to contact the editor, John Patton, 303 Brown Hall.

WINESKIN EDITOR NAMED

Miss Jane McClure, Junior B.D. student from the University of California at Berkeley, has been appointed Editor of WINESKIN for the 1967-68 academic year. The next issue of the weekly publication will appear in printed format under her editorship.

Material for publication must be submitted for editorial consideration and preparation by noon of Friday prior to the week of publication. WINESKIN will be mailed on Friday of each week, and material for the week of October 13-20, for example, must be in the editor's hands by October 6.

Material for WINESKIN must be placed in the box provided for that purpose at the door of the Student Publications Office in the basement of the South wing of Hodge Hall.

Students interested in working on WINESKIN or other student publications are asked to contact the Editor of the particular publication or Mr. Laird Stuart, Director of Student Publications.

JUNIÓR CLASS OFFICERS TO BE NOMINATED

Nominations for Junior Class officers will be made at 1:45 p.m., Wednesday, October 4, at a meeting of the class in the Campus Center Auditorium. Former and current officers from other classes will be present to discuss the duties of class officers.

Junior elections are scheduled for the following Wednesday, October 7, at 1:45 p.m. Presidential candidates will address the class. All Juniors should be present for the meeting. For further information, contact David Myler, 201 Alexander.

REIGNER READING ROOM TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE

The Charles G. Reigner Christian Education Reading Room will hold an Open House on October 3 and 4 during the regular hours for the reading room, 1:30 to 5:00 p.m.

New students are invited to attend the open house to gain an acquaintance with the services of the Charles G. Reigner collection of Christian Education materials.

The Reading Room is located in the facilities of the Christian Education Department, between North and South Halls.

Returning students and faculty will find the Reading Room completely remodeled, along with the entire office facilities of the department.

A table of duplicate books, pamphlets and other educational materials will be on display during the open house hours, and may be picked up free of charge by students desiring to have them.

WINESKIN READY FOR BUSINESS

Miss Jane McClure will resume her responsibilities as editor of Wineskin with the next issue. A Middler B.D. student from the University of California (Berkeley), Miss McClure edited the 1967-68 Wineskin.

Material for Wineskin must be in the editor's office in Hodge Hall by noon of the Friday prior to the week of publication. For example, announcements for the week of October 27 through November 3 must be submitted to the Student Publications Office by noon on Friday, October 18.

Wineskin is available to any campus organization for the promotion of programs and events. It is the most widely-distributed calendar of activities and is mailed weekly to off-campus students and faculty, and taken to each residence hall.

JUNIORS TO NOMINATE OFFICERS

The Junior Class will nominate officers at a 1:45 p.m., meeting of the class on Wednesday, October 16, in the Auditorium. Prior to making nominations the class will hear a description of the duties of the officers to be named. Election will follow nominations at the same meeting. Candidates for Class President will address the class prior to balloting.

John Mulder, editor of DIMENSION, is now soliciting manuscripts. Any student may submit an article or sermon. Faculty recommendations are not required. Papers may be submitted at the reception desk in the Administration building, or at 6 Hodge Hall, until October 31.

The Student Council voted unanimously to conduct a campus-wide collection for Biafra. During the week, we hope to have both a presentation on The Biafran Situation and a dialogue between representatives of both Biafra and Nigeria. If you wish to help on the Committee, please contact Grant Abbott in 108 Alexander Hall, Dave Lunan in 203 Hodge Hall, Bill Lemasy in 401 Brown Hall or Bob Butziger.

Commentary on C'67

The Theological Book Agency announces a special Sale of the newly published COMMENTARY ON THE CONFESSION OF 1967 AND AN INTRODUCTION TO THE BOOK OF CONFESSIONS. The author is our own Dr. Edward A. Dowey. The sale will begin Friday, October 11, 1968 and lasts for one week. The special sale price is $1,80.

"THIS IS THE WORD," A liturgical dramatization by Philip W. Turner, is now available for presentation to local churches by Princeton Seminary's touring drama group. This sermon-drama, written for presentation in the context of worship, was presented several times last year in churches and for the New York and Chicago Area Meetings of the United Presbyterian Men. Specific requests for scheduling (including a preferred date plus two options) should be made to Robert Jacks in the Speech Studios. Requests should be made as soon as possible, to insure scheduling. Production cost is $200 per performance, or $150 per performance for more than one performance in the same place. Host churches are also asked to provide for travel expenses, plus meals and housing when these are required. Many churches have found that union services provide for the advantages of community worship, as well as those of sharing production expenses.
